Chinese Consul Yang Wei Pin.

YANG WEI PIN, Consul for China in Hawaii, received friends yesterday at his residence in honor of the New Year. Yang Wei Pin, representing official China, was a day later than the mass of the Chinese of Hawaii, who celebrated on Monday. The reason of the difference between the dates is of interest. Some years ago the Chinese of San Francisco, who, being nearest to China of their brethren in the United States—Hawaii excepted—waited a day and make their feast the same as in the Flowery Kingdom. This the Reformers, or anti-Empress Chinese here refuse to do, and so they made Monday a holiday. Yang Wei Pin, the Consul, did not receive yesterday in state, as, owing to the disturbed conditions in Peking, it was not thought proper to rejoice. He merely entertained a few callers, among whom were F. W. Damon and family, Goo Kim, the Vice Consul, and leading merchants.

Annual Meeting Held Yesterday and a Luau Is Enjoyed.

The annual meeting of the managers of the Kapiolani Maternity Home was held yesterday and the morning was given over to business consultation. The Home was founded February 19, 1884, the seventeenth anniversary being observed yesterday. Prince David, who is the president of the board of managers, presided at the meeting. The Honolulu and Hoola Lahui Society also met with the board in joint annual meeting in the chapel, and much interest was manifested in the proceedings. After a prayer had been offered reports were read from various officers. Mrs. Eugene K. Reis reported the affairs of the Home to be in excellent financial condition. She also suggested a plan which has been informally considered for some time, for the addition to the Home of a department of surgery, a gynecological hospital. This suggestion was favorably received and will be further considered.

Mrs. Pierre Jones pointed out the need of such an addition to the Home and said that merchants of the city had expressed themselves heartily in sympathy with the plan and willing to contribute liberally. Mrs. Jones also, as treasurer, spoke of the advisability of a change in the investment of the Home's funds. The $100 endowment has already reached the sum of $2,000 and as it is now drawing but 4 1/2 per cent interest in bank, better results might be secured by more advantageous investment.

At the close of the meeting Prince David made a short address, expressing his pleasure in the success of the Home and complimenting the matron and other ladies to whom the success is in a measure due.

A lunch was served under the trees in the grounds and a merry time was had at noon time. About thirty-five youngsters participated, varying in age from two days up to ten years, the majority, however, being yet in swaddling clothes.

All the babies who could lay claim to having first seen the light of day in the Home were assembled in brave array at 2 o'clock for the purpose of having their pictures taken. A call had been issued to the parents of the youngsters and in response dozens of crowding, lusty-lunged little ones, fresh from the bath and swaddled in their best bibs and tuckers, gathered at the Home and posed for a snap-shot. The operation of photographing the group required considerable time, but good results are hoped for.

The old board of directors presented their resignations, but were unanimously re-elected to their positions, as follows:

Miss McIntyre, president; Miss Peabody, Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. E. S. Cunha, Mrs. J. F. Fowler, Mrs. Irene Brown, Mrs. Luther Wilcox, Mrs. Carl Widemann and Mrs. Pierre Jones, treasurer.

The following board of trustees was chosen: Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mrs. T. R. Foster, Miss Peabody, Mrs. E. W. Macfarlane, Mrs. E. S. Cunha and Mrs. A. Mackintosh.

The other officers elected were: President, Prince David Kawananakoa; first vice president, Mrs. James Campbell, second vice president, Princess
